PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Natai Shelsen joined the BCF team as a student in 2009. She began articling in September 2011 and was called to the Barreau du Québec in March 2012. She practices primarily in Civil and Commercial Litigation.

Ms. Shelsen received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Waterloo in 2007, where she graduated with Honours with a double major in Speech Communication and Peace & Conflict Studies. She obtained her Bachelors of Civil Law and Common Law from McGill University's Faculty of Law in 2010.

An active leader and member of various political and humanitarian groups at McGill, Ms. Shelsen received the Graduating Student Award for her outstanding contribution to the life of the Faculty during her legal studies. She was also the three-time recipient of the Alan Neil Assh Award for her contribution to athletics and health initiatives at the Faculty of Law. Finally, in 2011, Ms. Shelsen received the Fern Gertrude Kennedy Prize for Distinguished Writing for her empirical research regarding the experience of women in law school and the effect of legal education on students' mental health.
